(Approved by AICTE, New Delhi and Affiliated to Anna University, Chennai - An ISO 9001:2008 Certified Institution)

Kinathukadavu, Coimbatore - 642 109.

The Chief Guest Thiru Soma Valliappan highlighted the fact that education brings an important sign to every human being. He mentioned about the important values and features of engineering studies. He stressed that the students have to make their own way of success by fixing and working towards their right goal in these four years. He wondered about AKSHAYA's remarkable growth within a short span. He appreciated the institution for inaugurating the Centre for Placement in Defence which will train the students to get entry into Defence Services.

The Guest of Honour Thiru D.Ganesan, Manager motivated the students with his enlightening speech. He quoted that, "All the prosperities in life will come only when the right attitude and knowledge travel together". He highlighted the importance of the extracurricular activities in relieving the stress and strain of the students. He said that students have to be fearless about the failure and not to indulge in bad habits. He also added that in life when a person praises others whole heartedly, he enjoys the fruits of life.

In his speech, the Special Guest shared the various opportunities for Engineers in the field of defence. He advised the students to make use of the training given by the AKSHAYA's Centre for Placement in Defence to excel as an officer in Uniformed Services.

Scholarships and Prizes were given to the toppers of University Exams, students who had secured 100% attendance, and to the achievers who bagged prizes in various events conducted in other colleges. Monthly Scholarships for the students who maintain more than 8.0 CGPA were distributed. Parents expressed their happiness about choosing Akshaya College of Engineering and Technology and appreciated the Management and Staff for their services. Senior students from various departments welcomed their juniors enthusiastically.

Prof. Dr. N. Suguna, Joint Director, ACET, proposed the vote of thanks and the programme successfully ended with the National Anthem.
